Visit to Leighton House

Thursday 28th September 2023, 12 noon

12 Holland Park Road, London W14 8LZ

Tickets £25

Leighton House is an art museum in Holland Park, West London, and the former home of a leading Victorian artist - Frederic, Lord Leighton. It showcases an exceptional collection of Victorian art throughout a unique suite of interiors including a magnificent Arab Hall.

We have arranged a tour starting at midday and which lasts for an hour and a half. Please ensure you arrive 15 minutes before the start of the tour. A light lunch (a selection of baguettes, crisps, tea or coffee) can also be arranged after the tour at a cost of £11.95 per person.

Please note: You will need to make your own way to Leighton House by train and underground/ bus – details will be given nearer the date. You can also visit nearby Sambourne House if you so wish – however, this visit would be separate from the above tour and you would need to make your own arrangements. Sambourne House was the home of the Punch Cartoonist Edward Lindley Sambourne and provides an example of what was known as an 'Aesthetic interior' or 'House Beautiful'.

Payment: Payment can be made by online transfer (TASRTW, 30-98-77, 00484302) or by cheque (made payable to TASRTW). Your booking is only confirmed once payment has been received. Bookings are taken on a first come first served basis and numbers are limited to 30. We regret we cannot offer refunds if you are unable to come.
