

A Stroll Around the Streets of Spitalfields

Monday 29 September from 11am-1pm

Only 20 places - £20 per person

We have booked Sophie Campbell, a Blue Badge Guide, to lead us in a walk around the streets of this fascinating area of London. We will meet at Liverpool Street station before diving into the streets east of the station, past hidden synagogues, fine churches, a Roman burial, tiny Georgian shopfronts, the remnants of the garment industry and elegant fronted weavers' houses.

This is a two hour walk with a 20 minute pause in the middle for a comfort break and coffee. The roads are flat but can be uneven. The walk will end at about 1pm near the revitalised Spitalfields market, where there are plenty of lunch options.

Information about the meeting point will be provided near to the date.
